

The 4 Cheapest VoIP Providers for Calls to Mexico on the Day of the Dead Announced by CheapestVoIPCalls.net

(PRWEB) October 11, 2013

As November approaches, so does La Dia de los Muertos! The Day of the Dead is the Mexican holiday where family and friends come together to celebrate the memory of those that have passed and spend time with loved ones. However, many friends and family around the world cannot physically be with their loved ones in Mexico so they will reach out to them over the phone, but that can be expensive. The telecom experts at CheapestVoIPCalls.net have compared prices of the biggest national VoIP providers to announce the 4 Cheapest VoIP Providers for Calls to Mexico. Now people can call Mexico and hablo con sus amigos y familiares, to their hearts content.

1. PhonePower

With VoIP calls to Mexico starting at 1 cent per minute, PhonePower tops the CheapestVoIPCalls.net Cheap VoIP Providers to Call Mexico list. Millions of people already know that international calls to Mexico with PhonePower is much cheaper than their current home phone plan. Customers can call for 60 free minutes with the PhonePower international package to select locations before they pay any additional charges whatsoever.

Even in the hardest to call places in Mexico the PhonePower rates never reach more than 7.2 cents per minute. PhonePower customers can talk to every single family member and friend this Day of the Dead, for as long they please, without worrying about the cost.

2. VoIPo

Abuelitas (Grandmas) everywhere in Mexico will rejoice when they get to reminisce about loved ones passed this Dia de los Muertos, with far away relatives. VoIPo international rates to Mexico starting at only 2 cents per minute bring them in at second place on the 1010PhoneRates.com Cheapest List.

VoIPo international plans start at just $6.21 including 60 minutes of free calling each month to over 60 countries. After the 60 included minutes, connecting to any household in Mexico with VoIPo never tops 13 cents a minute, and call any cell phone in Mexico for no more than 35 cents per minute.

3. AXVoice

For high volume calling to Mexico, AXvoice offers an Unlimited International calling plan to Mexico and 45 other countries, for only $16.85 per month. Customers can call everyone they know in Mexico all day and night and not have to think about any costs. For frequent callers with talkative family members, AXvoice is the perfect plan to switch to.

4. ITP (Internet Telephone Provider)

The ITP Unlimited International calling plan is $24.99/month. This plan provides Unlimited calling to Mexico and over 60 other countries. This package comes with a rich set of features like call forwarding, call-waiting, music on hold, and Virtual area codes. A virtual area code makes calls to and from Mexico a local charge for callers on both sides of the border, not just the person on the receiving end.

The ITP Global Package at $24.99/month is perfect for those who have friends and family spread all over the world. Customers can call their mothers in Mexico to connect with them on The Day of the Dead and then call a friend in China to ring in the New Year, all without the worry of a huge monthly bill.

The Day of the Dead is all about connecting with friends and family and remembering loved ones. By making cheap Internet calls with one of the 4 Cheapest VoIP providers, customers can make that connection easier and more affordably than ever.

Read the full story at <http://www.prweb.com/releases/2013-VoIP/call-Mexico/prweb11221636.htm>.